ACCESSIONS TO THE SOUTHERN SOCIETY

Many Initiated at New Willard Hotel, Washington, Last Night.

OLD SOUTHERN SONGS.

Humorous Speeches by Several Prominent Persons—Card Party Will be Held Next Monday Night.

Washington, June 18.—Initiaton of seventy-one new members, the largest number ever received into the organization at one time, preceded an entertaining program at the New Willard last night where the Southern Society held a special meeting.

A resolution was adopted providing that where either a man or his wife is eligible to membership in the society, both might be allowed to join. This put an end to the controversy which led to the resignation of Congressman Richard Pearson Hobson as president recently when the society refused to approve of his plan to make the organiation nation wide in scope. Claude N. Bonett, the new president, occupied the chair.

Old songs of the south and new stories concerning some of the famous men of Dixie made up the program that followed the business session.

Congressamn John L. Burnett of Alabama said that the reason he was "the shortest man in congress" was that they had 500,000 hungry Yankees call at his hime when he was a boy, and in accordance with the Southern custom he had to wait till the grown-ups were through before he could eat. The wait was four years long, he concluded, and the wait effected his growth.

Col. Robert Lee Montague, Col. C. C. Calhoun, G. Grosvenor Dawe, and Dr. A. J. McElway also spoke in a humorous vein. Miss Small in the costume of 1861, sang a number of ballads of fifty years ago and Miss Alwarda Casselman gave several instrumental numbers. A quartet composed of Edgar R. S. Embrey, Edward Callow, J. S. Dunn, and Edward H. Mosley sang, accompanied by Byron Blodgett.

The announcement was made that next Monday night a card party will be given at the home of Mrs. F. C. Dyer, 1517 R street northwest.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Racing to a hospital to save a young woman who had swallowed poison with suicidal intent, an automobile owned by Guy E. Pierce, of Sacramento, Cal., was wrecked yesterday. Pierce was instantly killed; Miss Vera Brennon, who had taken the poison, was fatally hurt, and died in the hospital, and Herbert Woodall, the chauffeur, probably will succumb to his injuries. The party had been attending a bal lat Suburban Point. Miss Brennon, actuated by jealousy, attempted to end her life, and Pierce volunteered to hurry the unconscious young woman to a hospital here. While going at a high rate of speed Pierce's car struck soft earth at the side of the road and turned over three times.

Mrs. B. Wolfe, of Ferndale, Sullivan county, N. Y., near Monticello, tried to spank her young son yesterday and in so doing upset an oil stove, in the fiire that followed twelve business houses and three dwellings, including the Wolfe house, were destroyed. The loss will reach $100,000. Firemen from three towns were summoned and finally checked the flames with dynamite.

Miss Edna L. Turnburke, 23 years old, a teacher in the Ludlow street school, of Washington, yesterday afternoon ended her life by jumping into the Potomac river from Chain Bridge. Two young men in a canoe made a desperate attempt to rescue her, but she sank from sight before they could paddle within reach. Relatives and friends said afterwards that they thought the act was the result of melancholia, brought on by continuous ill health.

Two more violent deaths have been added to the number of increasingly frequent divorce tragedies in Paris. A rich French manufacturer, finding that his wife refused to be reconciled to him, Monday night shot her dead and then killed himself with a bullet through his heart. Both were 29 years old. The wife, the beautiful Mme. Crisel, was married a year ago, but soon left her husband and went to live with her father. A few weeks ago her lawyers were instructed to sue for divorce. Mr. Crisel, who was passionately devoted to his wife, made several attempts at reconciliation, but without success.

At a stormy session of the state mine committee at Charleston, W. Va., at which a fist fight between Senator Martine, of New Jersey, and Quinn Morton, manager of the Paint Creek Operators' Association, was narrowly averted, the coal operators of Paint and Cabin Creek yesterday presented their side of the controversy. Mr. Morton as the principal witness for the operators, presented their account of the negotiations which preceded the strike and detailed his activities during the troubles. His discussion of his participation in the attack on the strikers' camp at Holly Grove from an armored train precipitated the clash with Senator Martine, who was questioning him at the close of the morning session.

An Illinois Central express train due at Springfield ,Ill. at 12:45 was held up near there last night. The baggage car was cut off from the train by the bandits. Two masked men flagged the train near Glenarn, three miles from Springfield, and compelled the trainmen to uncouple the engine and the express car and to run ahead. The passengers are marooned in the coaches at the point where the train was stpped. Conductor Williams, five minutes after te engine and express car was uncoupled, heard an explosion, and believed the express car safe had been rifled. A special train carrying police and deputies has left Springfield for the scene.

Nine hundred telephone operators in the employ of the Southwestern Telephone (Bell) Company, in St. Louis, struck yesterday morning when officials of the company refused to negotiate with the operators' union. The trouble began with the discharge of employes of the maintenance department early in May. At that time 175 men struck. Demands that the men be reinstated were refused and the organization of the girl operators began.

PROBING THE BEET SUGAR INTERESTS

Charges Made in Investigation Before Congressional Committee.

TO FIGHT REDUCTION.

Sixty-Nine Letters Containing Important Facts Read—Alleged Compaign of Education

Washington, June 18.—The committee investigating the charges aganst the sugar lobby today continued the reading of letters, which were seized from Truman T. Palmer, the head of the organization here. Mr. Oxnard was shown to have encouraged a movement to eduacte Congressmen on the beet sugar question.

Here are some of the important facts brought out in 69 of the letters.

That the beet sugar interests, guided by President C. B. Warren, of the Michigan Beet Sugar Company, Republican national committeeman from Michigan, negotiated to purchase $35,000 bonds of the Chicago Inter-Ocean in order to control the paper.

That the American Press Association was paid $125 to place beet sugar articles in 250 papers in Indiana.

That Aaron Gove, agent of the beet sugar interests, incurred expenses he did not wish to itemize.

That speeches for members of Congress were prepared in numerous cases by the beet sugar lobby.

That Henry T. Oxnard entertained a Senatorial committee in order to influence it on tariff.

That a campaign was carried on all over the country through paid agents, whose business was to get resolutions adopted satisfactory to the tariff ideas of the beet sugar interests.

That Senator Smoot was advised of the plan to buy control of the Inter-Ocean and thought it important.

That a publicity agent traveled over the country and succeeded in getting inspired stories favorable to beet sugar in various papers.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Kills Young Wife And Himself in Washington Street.

Arthur J. Sackett, 25 years old, a former clerk in the street cleaning department of Washington at 11:50 last nght, shot his wife, Flora, 20 year sold, and then himself, on the sidewalk in front of 109 E street northwest. Sackett blew his brains out. He died instantly. His wife lived for half an hour after she had been taken to Emergency Hospital. One bullet had gone through her body, the other through her face, neck, and right shoulder.

In a letter which was found in one of Sackett's pockets, and which shows that he had made thorough preparation beforehand, the young woman is vaguely blamed for the step Sackett had determined to take. The police, however, have been acquainted with Sackett since May, 1909, and it was said in the Sixth precinct last night that he never had supported his pretty, young wife or their two children, one of whom lives with Sackett's mother, while other ,a girl of 2 years old, has been taken care of by Mrs. Harry Sanger, of 1223 New Jersey avenue northwest, to whom Sackett's letter was addressed. Sackett and his wife were not living together.

Suicide.

After holding a Sheriff's posse at bay all night Edward Bartholomew, 60 years old slashed his throat with a razor early yesterday morning in an old shanty, in which he had barricaded himself, and was found dead. Bartholomew Monday afternoon, quarreled with Samuel Growther, superintendent of the Dick Sand Company, and in the course of the trouble he drew a revolver and shot him.

QUESTION OF JURISDICTION.

District of Columbia Claims to High Water in Virginia.

Secretary Garrison, to whom brokers appealed for the permit to build a platform from the Virginia approach to the highway bridge to their places of business in Alexandria county yesterday sent the papers in the case to the attorney general to determine at just what point on the Highway Bridge the jurisdiction of the District ends and that of Virginia begins.

Attorney General McReynolds has been asked to decide the question. The brokers crossed the Potomac after the new law of the District of Columbia went into effect and the platform is desired to make connection with buildings on ground near the river on a lower level than the bridge approach.

A study of the question by Colonel Cosby, superintendent of Public buildings and grounds resulted in the discovery of a map made in 1838 to show the head of navigation on the river. This map seems to indicate that the land on which the buildings stand is under the jurisdiction of the District of Columbia. Under the cessation from Maryland the jurisdiction of the District over the Potomac extends to the highwater mark on the Virginia shore.

TESTING CLERKS.

Work Continuous, Requiring Considerable Study.

C. G. Goodlow, chief clerk of the Railway mail service is in the city today, for the purpose of testing mail clerks in their work of distributing mail.

The work of a mail clerk is exacting and continuous study is requisite. The clerks must continue to study to keep up a high average in the work of distribution of mail and their knowledge of the names and locations of thousands of postoffices throughout their district and the state. From time to time inspections are made and the clerks tested for ability and knowledge in distributing letters, usually they are given a list of about one thousand postoffices in a certain district in the state a dummy letter being addressed to each office which must be distributed to boxes. Some of the offices are small and seldom receive mail through the clerks hand though it is imperative tha the clerk keep himself well informed as to their location, routing and name Thes uperintendent of mail times the these dummy letters. This time is placed against their record for promotion.

Storm on the Coast.

A terrific electrical storm, accompanied by hail and high winds, swept through a chain of seashore resorts along the northern New Jersey coast during Monday night, doing damage estimated at many thousands of dollars. Four towns—Brielle, Manasquan, Point Pleasant, and Bay Head—lay directly in the storm's path. Several houses were struck by lightning, others were lifted from their foundations and carreid over fences, and many trees were uprooted. Crops were badly damaged. The storm lasted less than 10 minutes.

TARIFF CHANGE FAVORS RICHMOND

Collections Expected to Show Big Increase in the Future.

INCOME LAWS' EFFECT

Great Bulk of Imports Into Virginia Capital are Articles Upon Which Duty Has Been Increased.

Richmond, Va., June 18.—Changes in the general tariff schedule as proposed by the Underwood bill and Hull's income tax law are expected to mean a vast increase in the revenues derived by the federal government through the customs house at the port of Richmond and internal revenue collections for this district. While the Underwood bill makes wholesale additions to the free list and lowers the tariff on a great many commodities, it makes recompense by raising the duty on the luxuries of life, tobacco, spirits, wines and the like, which form the great bulk of the importations at this port.

If, as now contemplated, the duty on tobacco filler is raised from 35 cents a pound prescribed by the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill to 50 cents a pound, the change I mean an increase of hundreds o. thousands of dollars in collections at the port of Richmond. It is estimated by officials of the local custom-house that this increase in the duty on tobacco filler will boost the collections of this pjort for the fiscal year of 1914 to about $1,500,000, as against $1,000000 for the fiascal year of 1912-1913.

Tobacco and burlap are the principal articles of import at Richmond, and tobacco filler is imported in larger quantities than any other item.

It is estimated that the Hull income tax law will mean an increase in the internal revenue collections for the district of about $4,000,000 a year. The government now derives $30,000,000 revenue from its excise tax on the incomes of corporations, this district collecting about $300,000. Treasury department statisticians estimate that the income tax will add $70,000,000 to the excise revenue, and if the law of proportion is observed, this office will collect about $750,000 next year from taxes on the incomes of corporations and individuals.

This estimate will be surpassed in actuality if many of the immensely rich northerners with homes in Virginia pay their income tax through this office.

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLING.

Masters And Kinnear on Trial in the Criminal Court.

Samuel J. Masters and John B. Kinnear, former chief workman, and chief scribe, respectively, of the Modern Workmen of the World, were placed on trial yesterday before Justice Stafford, and a jury in Criminal Court No. 1, in Washington, on the charge of embezzling funds of the organization.

Assistant United States Attorney S. McC. Hawken, who is conducting the prosecution, made the opening address to the jury for the government. He told them that he expected to prove that between May, 1909, and December, 1910, Masters and Kinnear appropriated to their own use about $13,700 of the funds of the organization. The statement of the defense, conducted by Attorneys Wilton J. Lambert, R. H. Yeatman, and Weldon Bailey, and Judge J. K. M. Norton, of Alexandria, was reserved till the prosecution had finished its side of the case.

The case will be continued today.

WITHDRAWS FROM RACE.

yd W. King Will Not be Candidate For Attorney General.

Richmond, Va., June 18.—Floyd W. ng, of Clifton Forge, withdrew m the race for the Democratic mination for attorney general af irginia last night, declaring that actional lines have been drawn and that he refused to be "party to a campaign which must result in a factional fight rather than a test of strength upon merit alone."

Mr. King, in his announcement of his withdrawal, holds John Garland Pollard, "the eleventh hour" candidate, responsible for the injection of factional differences into the campaign and it is at Mr. Pollard that he directs his only attack, whose candidacy, he says, "was announced as a result of a conference with a coterie of gentlemen in Washington of unstated names and nationalities."

UNDERWOOD AT UNIVERSITY.

Democratic Leader Talks to the Alumni Around Banquet Table.

Charlottesville, Va., June 18.—Yesterday was alumni day in the commencement calendar of the University of Virginia. The annual business meeting of the General Alumni Association took place at 10 o'clock, with Representative Oscar W. Underwood, president of the association, in the chair. At noon the annual address before the alumni was delivered by Lewis M. Coleman, of Chattanooga, Tenn., class of '82. His subject was "The College Man and the State."

It was 2 o'cock when the alumni gathered around the banquet board in the commons with Representative Underwood at the head of the table. He came to Charlottesville, both to discharge his duty as president of the General Alumni Association and to witness the graduation of his son, Oscar W., Jr., as bachelor of law. Mr. Underwood bore a message of hope and cheer. He warned the alumni that the man who is lost in the maze of his own business and has neither time nor desire to get above his own personal desires and ambitions will regard the way of progress as beset with perils. From the heights he can see that the line of march leads to the advancement of mankind and to the upift of society. There was a time when it was thought that constitution could not be changed except upon the urging of war conditions, and yet two amendments have become effective within the year—one concerning the political machinery of the government and the other changing the fiscal policy of the nation.

These changes in the Constitution would have been considered very radical a few years ago. Today there is practically no dissent. "No man, said Mr. Underwood, "is so bold as to declare that they are not in the interest of better government for the whole people and that they have not equalized and strengthened our whole fiscal system.

DECISION REVERSED.

Looney, Slayer of Town Sergeant, May Escape Chair.

Richmond, Va., June 18. — After having been granted several respites, Harvey L. Looney, slayer of O. M. Martin, town sergeant of Newcastle, Craig county, will probably escape the death penalty, the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, in session in Wytheville, yesterday afternoon, having reversed the decision of the circuit court of Craig county,which sentenced the prisoner to die in the electric chair.

An effort was made to save Looney from the death chair on the ground that he was of unsound mind and did not know what he was doing when the murder occurred.

Since the murder Looney is reported to have made two attempts to end his life once by shooting himself and another time by slashing his throat while preparations were being made to bring him to the "death house" of the penitentiary here about November 13, 1912.

Looney was in the Clifton Forge hospital several weeks after the murder ,it being reported that he had fired a bullet into his abdomen.

ECHO OF ALLEN CASE.

Pastor Tells Why Condemned Man Was Not Baptized.

Richmond, Va., June 18.—Satisfying some curiosity and clearing up perhaps some misunderstanding regarding his reason for not baptizing Claude Allen, which he touched on in a sermon Sunday night, Dr. Geo. W. McDaniel, pastor of the First Baptist Church, made the followins statement this morning:

"The question has been raised as to why I did not baptize Claude Allen Abou two days before his death Claude said: "Doctor, would you mind baptizing me?" In reply he was told that I was not ashamed to serve him in any possible way, and the fact that he was condemned to die would not cause me to hesitate in performing any religious service But on the other hand he was told that baptism was not essential to salvation; that salvation was by grace through faith and not of works that ordinances had no saving efficacy; that the terms upon which Christ saves were repentance and faith, and that if he really repented of his sins and trusted Christ for his soul's salvation he was saved.

"I cited the case of the thief on the cross who went to heaven, where Jesus was, without being baptized, and his case (Claud's), was somewhat analagous. After thinking the matter over, and reading the Bible for himself, he said: "I know that baptism is not essential to my salvation, and I am willing to meet God upon the terms of the Gospel and the state of my heart. If I could live I would ask you to baptize me in order that I might in that way declare to the world my faith in Jesus Christ."

In substantiation of his belief that Claude Allen was saved, Dr. McDaniel gave an account of the occurrences just prior to the electrocution of the father and son: "So far as men can judge, Claude Allen was prepared to meet God. There was no root of bitterness in his heart. His letter to the Governor showed a noble spirit ,and his dying statement which was written without the help of any one expressed his thoughts in his own words, gave evidence to his preparedness for the other world.

"The morning of the electrocution I asked Floyd Allen how he felt He said: "I would like to take every enemy I have by the hand and tell him I forgive him and take every friend by the hand and tell him I thank him but I am bound to say that I did not get justice. For a man Floyd Allen's checkered experience this showed a chastened spirit. But Claude, speaking from his cell across the corridor replied: "No matter how you may feel about the testimony and the trial, a man must put all of that out of his heart when he goes to meet his God.'

"As Floyd walked to the electric chair he took Claude by the hand and said: "God bless my boy.' Claude with mellowed words, said: 'I hope to meet you in heaven.' Floyd replied: 'I hope I'll meet you, yes, I hope I'll meet you there.' These were the last words they spoke to each other on earth. Let us hope that through the cleansing blood of our Saviour they were prepared to meet God in peace."

The tragedy occurred n the Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio railroad, on the northside of Scott county. The slayer was placed under attest at Dante, Va., yesterday and will be brought to the Scott county jail today.

Do you buy only the absolute necessities of life? If so, then you must limit yourself to something to eat, something to wear, and something to live in. Or do you demand some of the things which go to make a higher life?
The Bell telephone may not be an absolute necessity to you; but it is a comfort, a convenience, a safety, a friend and companion. an aid to better living.

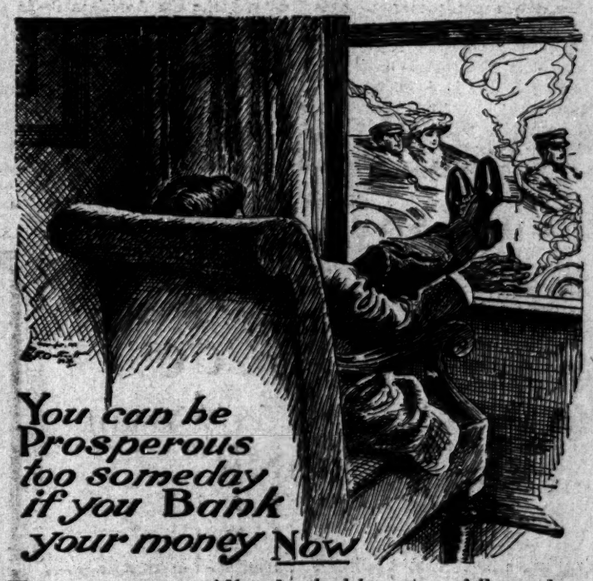
The Truth About Electric Cooking
For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.
In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is desired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in operation—as well as reasonable in cost.
In every family a few utensils for early breakfast, emergency and special uses —and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, including that of economy.
Alexandria County Lighting Company



The man you see riding by in his automobile perhaps began with smaller income than you have now. But by depriving himself of a few unnecessary extravagances he was able to start a bank account. It grew. Today he is enjoying the luxuries that he pays for out of money that he does not miss because money makes money. The comfort he enjoys today is only the interest on his EARLY ECONOMY. Start a bank account NOW.

BOOSTERS' DAY AT THE BALL PARK.

"Boosters' Day" at the American League Ball Park in our big sister city across the river, brought out a large crowd of loyal fans to encourage their favorites.Such an organized effort on the part of full-grown, sane men, in behalf of a professional team opens the mind to the hold which our national game has taken upon the people. It is easy to understand how school and college students enthuse over the base ball teams representing their schools, but their enthusiasm extends to every branch of sport in which their respective teams participate. This love of sport is characteristic of the American people but love of baseball is a positive passion with great majority of them. It holds first place in their hearts, among the sports. . It matters little to the average man that the United States was victorious over the British in the recent international polo match. Few people care about a game that can be indulged in only by those who can afford the purchase and keep of a stable of polo ponies and other expenses incident to such sport. On the other hand, every mind can return with a keen enjoyment to the games played in the meadow behind the barn or on some never-to-be-forgotten city common, and such recollections engender a desire teo watch the game played by those who know it best. It is the sport of the people; rich and poor, distinguished and humble; from the President to the boy who looks through the knot hole in the fence. Professional baseball, as now played, is conducted upon a high plane and constitutes a clean, manly sport which is a credit to the nation. It is needless to wish it a great future. That is assured beyond peradventure of doubt.

CURRENCY BILL NOW PENDING.

Despite the protests of his friends in Congress and a well defined belief in the Democratic party that the time is not ripe for the enactment of a measure for banking and currency reform at this session of Congress President Wilson has determined to go ahead with his program and the bill will be introduced today or tomorrow. There can be no doubt but that the reform of the present antiquated system is needed and that the sooner the operation is undertaken the better it will be, but the wise surgeon always considers the condition of his patient before he goes ahead. With the important tariff bill under way and with unsettled business conditions prevalent throughout the country there can be no doubt but that more legislation at thi ssession of congress might prove disastrous to the country at large.

The Norfok Virginia-Pilot expresses our views of the situation which says:"

"We do not believe that any well digested scheme can be formulated within the time for which, the tariff having been disposed of, Congress will consent to remain in Washington; nor are we at all confident that within that period the assent of a majority in both houses can be secured for any plan. Furthermore, we are of opinion that final action on the tariff will be delayed by the bringing forward of any important piece of legislation before that has been consummated; and still further, we think that the dissentions which exist in the senate over certain schedules of the Underwood bill will be strengthened by the introduction of a second administration measure as to which wide differences of judgment prevail among Democratic Senators. It were safer not to imperil the postponement of one essential reform by pressing in advance of pressing exigency for the accomplishment of another not so imperatively demanded, though of great importance. To attempt the doing of too much is to risk the achievement of anything. If the special session shall carry out in completeness the pledges of the Baltimore platform for revision of the tariff, it will have earned for the Democratic administration the plaudits of the country and its trust that all other promises will be fairly and wisely redeemed in due season."

SUICIDE OF A FARMER.

Blows Off His Head With Shotgun—Worry Cause of It.

Winchester, V., June 18.—William Highland, a farmer, after caressing his baby, blew off the entire top of his head with the contents of a shot gun at his residence near Shippensburg. It is said Highland was worried over finncial reverses.

When he returned home from a live stock sale he is said to have told his wife that he intended to kill himself. She thought he was joking and left the room. Highland at that time had his baby on his lap kissing it. Shortly afterward his wife heard the noise made by the gun, and rushing into the house found her husband lying on the floor dead.

Feats of Aviators.

St. Petersburg, June 18.—A 1,600 mile trip by aeroplane—from Paris to St. Petersburg—was completed at 11:25 o'clock yesterday morning by the French aviator, Marcel G. Brindejonce des Moulinais, who covered the last 300-mile lap of his journey in 3 1-2 hours in the face of a strong head wind. The Russian aero club presented the aeronaut with a silver vase. Brindejonc des Moulinais will return to Paris by aeroplane via Helsingfors, Stockholm and Copenhagen.

St. Louis Mo., June 18.—Carrying two passengers in his hydroaeroplane, Anthony Jannus, a local aviator, broke the American speed record and approached the world's record in a flight over the Mississippi river yesterday. He flew 24 miles in 18 minutes, averaging 79.8 miles an hour. The American record for such craft without passengers is 78 miles an hour. The world's record with two passengers is 81 miles an hour. The flight began underneath the Merchants Bride at St. Louis and ended under the bridge at Alton Ill. The passengers were Harry Erd, of Alton ,merchant, and L. E. Gowin a traveling salesman.

CHARGES NOT SUSTAINED.

Upon Kelly threatening to eject him Pedrick called him an ugly name and defied him to put him out. At this juncture Kelly said he proceeded from behin dthe counter and took hold of his coat. The latter caught him by his shirt, and when the saloonkeeper threw up his arm and broke his hold Pedrick fell on a trough at the foot of the counter. The colored man later conducted him out of the saloon Kelly denied striking or kicking him or picking up a bottle.

Justice Caton in summing up the case said the only testimony charging that an assault had been committed had been given by Pedrick, while several witnesses had testified that the complainant was drunk before he entered the saloon. An attempt to eject a disorderly person from a place of business does not of itself, constitute assault unless unnecessary force is used which had not been shown in this case. He therefore dismissed the charge against Kelly.

A counter charge of disorderly conduct had been brought against Pedrick ,which was also dismissed. as his adventures had ended disastrously.

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING.

VIRGINIA:

In the Clerk's Office of the Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, on the 9th day of June, 1913:

Edgar Stevenson and Bessie S. Stevenson, his wife, and Anna E. Stevenson, unmarried, complainants.

Vs in Chancery.

Memo:

The object of this suit is to obtain partition of the real estate of which Edgar Stevenson, Sr., and Amy Stevenson, died seized and possessed to wit: No. 1113 Princess Sa., Alexandria, Va., and if the same be not susceptible of partition in kind, to have it sold for that purpose, and distribution made among those entitled; for settlement of the estate of Edgar Stevenson and Amy Stevenson, for reasonable fees for complainants counsel; for subjection of said estates to repay advances made by John T. Stevenson, deceased, and for general relief.

It appearing by affidavits filed in this cause that the defendants, Chas. SUFFER LOSS BY FIRE.

Subscription Started For Relief of Those Whose Effects Were Burned.

Charlottesville, Va., June 18.—Fire, which broke out shortly after midnight last night, on Belmont, entirely destroyed a store and combined dwelling and badly damaged another house. The two buildings were owned by T. W. Norvell, who carried no insurance on them. His loss is between $3,000 and $3,500. The store was managed by J. B. Johnson, for Henry Bufford, and besides the family of Mr. Johnson, Stirling Baltimore and a Mrs. Mitchell each had rooms in the building. All three of these occupants lost everything in the fire. The only insurance was that of $700 on the stock. The families of David Thomas and of Mrs. Beard, who live in the house, which was partially burned, lost considerable furniture. A popular subscription has been started for the relief of the sufferers from the fire.

SUIT AGAINST SOUTHERN.

Railway Will be Charged With Violating Hours of Service Law.

Richmond, Va., June 18.—Assistant United States District Attorney Hiram Smith, has received from District Attorney Lawrence Groner, papers in a suit against the Southern Railway for $13,000 for violations of the railway federal hours of service statute, which will be filed in the District court today.

There are twenty-six counts in the indictment which charges that employes of the Southern Railway were required to work more than sixteen hours continuously. The alleged violations occurred for the most part between Monroe, Va., and the Potomac yards of the Southern.

The papers were prepared by Mr Groner, who completed his task yesterday and forwarded them to Mr. Smith here yesterday.

MAY LEAVE COUNTRY.

Mrs. Taft Mght Move to France if Suffragettes Sway America.

Paris, June 18.—Mrs. W. H. Taft who is traveling with 21 trunks and 4 grips, was interviewed at Libert Hotel on her arrival in Paris. She said she would become a naturalized Frenchwoman if ever the suffragettes get the upper hand in America. On learning that there are also many suffragettes in France, she declared

"I can't believe France has fallen as low as that. How she must have lost prestige in the eyes of other nations!"

Asked for her opinion of current politics, Mrs. Taft said:

"I don't want to talk politics. I don't understand anything about them. All I know is that our new President, Mr. Wilson, is rather too much of an innovater and owes his triumph to the caprices of the American people and the suffragettes. There is no woman in America who doesn't absolutely adore President Wilson. It's really quite alarming.'

As an instance of the strength of the woman's movement she cited Senator Chamberlain"s recent report in favor of votes for women and the fact that he had been promised the support of his colleagues.

Mrs. Taft will leave Thursday for Aix-les-Bains.

George Ensor, a busines man of Piedmont, W. Va., while fishing near Mountaindale, yesterday, was attacked by snakes, which came from a rotten log on which he was sitting. Before he could beat them off, the reptiles had entwined themselves about him, binding his arms, hands and feet. The snakes, more than a dozen in number, measured from four to six feet in length. Mr. Ensor, after vainly endeavoring to work his arms and feet loose, had the presence of mind to roll down a hill into a fire which he had built to cook his breakfast. Mr. Ensor ran to the stream and threw himself into the water, extinguishing his burning clothing.

KILLING OF DR. BRINKLEY.

Mr. Whisnant Believed to Have Been Suffering From Insanity.

Savannah, Ga., June 18.—That Mrs. Katherine Kittles Whisnant, the young widow who last night shot and killed Dr. Guy Brinkley and then committed suicide, contemplated the act was establshed yesterday, when a note was found at her home addressed to her mother. In this note Mrs. Whisnant stated that "something dreadful' was about o hapen, and she besought her mother's forgiveness for her intended act.

It was also establshed that Mrs. Whsnant Monday morning had her revolver freshly loaded at a hardware store, purchasing a box full of steel cartridges. She told the clerk who waited on her that she intended to go target shooting, and invited him to go with her. She showed no evidence of excitement at that time.

It is stated by people who lived in the house with Mrs. Whisnant, who was known under her maiden name of Kittles, that she had often stated that she would kill any man whom she loved and who might refuse to marry her. Physicians are of the opinion that the girl was suffering from some form of insanity. It is certain that she was infatuated with the physcian, and probably that he had repulsed her advances. Dr. Brinkley was almost twice the age of Mrs. Whisnant, who was hardly more than 25 years old.

Mrs. Whisnant's marriage was most romantic. Whisnant was taken ill at Charotte, N. C. He telegraphed the then Miss Kittles to come to him, which she did. When it became evident that he could not recover, he begged her to marry him. This she did while he was on his deathbed. When he died, five days later, she returned to her mother in Savannah, and has been living here since. She resumed her maiden name amost immediately. Few people in Savannah knew that she had been married.

The body of Mrs. Whisnant was taken to her old home at Sylvania for burial yesterday. Simultaneously the body of Dr. Brinkley was sent to his old home at Suffolk, Va. Mrs. Whisnant came from one of the most prominent families in south Georgia.

From the tone of the note left by the girl, coupled with her previous statements and her actions in making doubly sure of her revolver, it is evident that she premeditated slaying Dr. Brinkley. No other motive than that of disappointment of lack of affection for her can be assigned for the tragedy. This is the accepted theory.

The name of the woman who accompanied Mrs. Whisnant to the physician's office became known yesterday, but has not been made pulbic. She is said to mave made a statement to the coroner which satisfied him that she had no guilty knowledge of the impending tragedy. This woman stated that she merely accompanied the girl as she would any other acquaintance. She fled when the first shot was fired.

KILLED BY EXPLOSION.

Deadly Bomb Sent Through Mail by Jealous Woman.

Mrs. Theo. Bilodeau, wife of a wealthy contractor, was killed and Miss Bilodeau, her sister-in-law, was seriously wounded yesterday afternoon in their home in Sherbrooke, Quebec, by the explosion of a bomb which had been sent by mail.

The package was delivered at the house in the regular course of mail deliveries, and the women took it into teh dining room and eagerly began to unfasten the strings which bound the wrapper on it, believing, as Miss Bilodeau said, that it was a present from a friend.

After the string had been removed, the two women joined in tearing off the wrapper, and it was then that the delirate mechanism was set in operation.

Connection apparently was made with a dry-cell battery which ignited a fulmigating cap attached to several sticks of dynamite.

The explosion mangled Mrs. Bilodeau, killing her before aid arrived. Miss Bilodeau was thrown across the room and one arm torn from her body. She was otherwise cut and bruised, and is proabby suffering from internal injuries. Her condition is critical.

The police, in gatherng parts of the bomb, found scraps of a note which apprently had been inclosed in the death machine. The message was written in French, and is believed to be the handwriting of a woman. Not enough of the note was found to make a coherent sentence, but from the fact that it was written by a woman, the police believe that a woman and jealousy figure in the mystery.

FALL OF FOUR FEET FATAL.

Painter Killed on Anniversary of 40-Foot Drop That Failed to Injure.

Philadelphia Pa. June 17.—On the anniversary of a fall of forty feet, in which he escaped injury, Hugh Walker, 56 years old, a painter, living at No. 2312 North Colorado St., was illed yesterday by falling only four feet. During the last 15 years he has several times had falls of 15 and 25 feet, each time escaping By a peculiar coincidence the only time he was injured was when he fell a few feet fro ma porch roof and received a fractured skull and on another occasion tumbling off a fence, when three of his ribs and his jaw were fractured.

Washington, June 18.—President Wilson sent to the Senate yesterday the nominations of Dr. Thomas Nelson Page, the Virginia novelist, to be Ambassador to Italy, and of Pleasan A. He has has his mind made up on these appointments for several days, and waited only for notice that they would be acceptable to the foreign governments interested.

Early in the administration Senator Martin, of Virginia, and other friends of Dr. Page in Virginia pushed him for Ambassador to the Court f St. James.

Dr. Page is an author of note. His works, which embrace many short stories, are widely read, and he is a frequent contributor to the current magazines. He is best konwn as the author of "In Ole Virginia," "Befo' de War," "Marse Chan," and "Pastime Stories."

NEGRO YOUTH DROWNS.

Attempting to Perform Gymnastic Feat While Swimming and Meets Death.

Richmond, Va., June 18.—An 18-year-old negro, believed to be Geo. or James Goode, whose address has not been learned by the police last night, was drowned yesterday afternoon at 4:25 o'clock while swimming with white and colored boys in the James river at the foot of 12th street. Goode, who spent most of his time idling about the river front, was supposed to be a good swimmer. Witnesses said he was attempting to perform a gymnastic feat when he met his death. He had dived into a deep hole, and when he arose to the surface he was heard to gasp that he was out of breath. He sank for the last time before assistance reached him. The body lodged between some rocks and it was with difficulty that it was gotten out and brought ashore.

Coroner Taylor, who said an inquest would be unnecessary, directed that it be turned over to an undertaker to be claimed by relatives.

Had Tuberculosis of Glands; Now Well

If you are a sufferer from Glandular Tuberculosis, or know of anyone so afflicted, it might be well to investigate this case, where the writer declares after a year of suffering, he found permanent relief and full recovery to health by using Eckman's Alterative, a medicine which has been effective in many cases of Tuberculosis:—

257 Larueton St., Phila., Pa.

"Gentlemen:—In March, 1909, I was taken sick and my doctor pronounced my case Tuberculosis in the Glands. Medical treatment did not help me, and on my doctor's advice, I went to a hospital to be operated upon, but relief was only temporary. I lost strength, and at times would have cold sweats and fever. In April, 1910, I returned to the hospital, but the continued operations were not benefiting me.

"In the meantime, a friend of mine advised Eckman's Alterative, saying it was good for Tuberculosis. The wounds in my neck were still open and in a frightful condition when I started to take it. After using two bottles, I found I was improving, having gained weight, could eat, and was able to sleep. I continued using it until I was well, which was in November, 1910. Before I took the medicine, I had three hemorrhages, since I have been taking it, I have not had any. On November 11, 1910, I started to work, and since that time I have not lost one day's work through sickness. I can highly recommend Eckman's Alterative to anyone who is suffering from Tuberculosis or Gland Trouble, providing they take it as directed. I will gladly correspond with any party desiring further information of what the medicine did for me."

(Sworn affidavit) JOSEPH B. WHITE.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

Mrs. Wyatt and Miss Elizabeth Schaffer, who weighs 269 pounds, cornered Austin in an attorney's office. Mrs. Schaffer seized him from behind and held him in a viselike grip while Mrs. Wyatt belabored him with a section of garden hose. Austin came out of the fray with both eyes blackened, a badly swollen nose and sundry head bruises. After "trimming" him to her satisfaction. Mrs. Wyatt forced him to write and sign before a notary an affidavit for publication retracting the statements to which Mrs. Wyatt had taken exception.
